

With financial support from the Daphne III Programme of the European Union

Women Rough Sleepers Who Suffer Violence

Public Seminar, European Parliament, Brussels

Thursday 29th November 2012, Room: A3H-1, 10:00 – 12:00

- 09:00 Registration opens at Place Luxembourg entrance
- 10:00 Welcome by Kinga Göncz, Member of the European Parliament, S&D Group, Vice-Chair of the European Parliament Committee on Civil Liberties, Justice and Home Affairs
- 10:15 Niccolo Rinaldi MEP, Group of the Alliance of Liberals and Democrats for Europe, Karima Delli (Greens/European Free Alliance Group) (tbc)
- 10:30 Professor Kate Moss, University of Wolverhampton on the research findings with comments from the WRS project partners: Region of Andalucía, Malmö City Council and Budapest's Regional Social Welfare Resource Centre
- 11:00 – 11:40 Roundtable comments from:
- Mr Freek Spinnewijn, Director of FEANTSA
  - Mr Eugen LUCAN, Member of the European Economic and Social Committee
  - Representative from DG Justice (TBC)
  - Mr Andrea Meszaros, DG Employment, European Commission (tbc)
  - Ms Heather Roy, Secretary General, Eurodiaconia
- 11:40 Questions from the floor, chaired by Professor Kate Moss, University of Wolverhampton
- 11:55 Final comments and conclusions from Kinga Göncz MEP (S&D group), Niccolo Rinaldi MEP, ALDE Group and Karima Delli (Greens/European Free Alliance Group) (tbc)
- 12:00 End of Public Seminar

To reserve your place at this event, please register by sending an email to events@wmeuropeanservice.eu by Friday 23rd November 2012. For colleagues who do not possess a European Parliament pass, please give the following details: Full name, Date of Birth, Place of Residence, ID number (indicating whether it is a passport or ID card and expiry date).